

FROM FESTIVAL, B7

• “La Bulle” from Corpus, Canada: Last seen at WOW in 2015 with its show “A Flock of Flyers,” Corpus returns with this outdoor solo show featuring the clownlike character Pierrot, a mime, dancer and artist, performing inside a giant snow globe-like bubble. 60 minutes. 8 p.m. April 21-24. North Promenade. Free.

• “Lessons in Temperament” from Outside the March, Canada: Writer-musician-performer James Smith will perform this one-man play about four neuro-diverse brothers as he tunes a piano onstage, a metaphor for how all humans are tuned differently. 110 minutes. 8 p.m. April 21; 5 p.m. April 22; 6:30 p.m. April 23; 3:30 p.m. April 24. Light Box at Dorothea Laub Music & Arts Center, 2590 Truxtun Road. $20.

• “Monuments” from Craig Walsh, Australia: This outdoor nighttime projection installation will transform trees into sculptural monuments as a way of honoring the legacies of San Diego’s unsung heroes. Walsh will photograph and interview the subjects for the multimedia installation. 8-10 p.m. April 21-24. Arts District. Free.

• “The Music Sounds Different to Me Now” from Bill Wright, San Diego: This dance and music piece will feature “Jody” throwing her annual party for her gang of singer-dancer friends, who will tap into stories from their lives, both funny and poignant. 60 minutes. 2 and 7 p.m. April 23-24. Dorothea Laub Dance Place, 2650 Truxtun Road. $20.

• “The Mystery of Secrets” from San Diego Dance Theatre: Four choreographers will create mysterious and improvisational dance pieces at sites around the festival hub in the Arts District. Besides SDDT dancers, there will be community dancers and performers from Flamenco Sur. 30 minutes. 4:30 p.m. April 23-24. Hub, North Promenade. Free.

• “On Her Shoulders We Stand” from TuYo Theatre, San Diego: In this walk-through, immersive theatrical installation, audience members will hear the stories of Latinas who, though not accepted as Americans during the 1940s, still joined the war effort at home. 35 minutes. Tours begin every 20 minutes from 6 to 9:40 p.m. April 21-22 and from noon to 4:40 p.m. April 23-24. Central Promenade, Roosevelt Road between Truxtun and Historic Decatur roads. $20.

• SDUSD 2022 Honors Theatre Devised Project, San Diego: La Jolla Playhouse and visual and performing arts teachers in the San Diego Unified School District are collaborating on an original play devised by 33 high school students that challenges the audience to build a better future. 30 minutes. 5 p.m. April 23-24. Hub, North Promenade. Free.

• Silent Disco: This interactive program lets participants put on a headset and dance to music from DJ Chris Freeman that only they can hear. 90 minutes. 8:30 p.m. April 23. Hub, North Promenade. Free.

• “Somnium” from The Rosin Box Project, San Diego: This new ballet centered on the architecture of Liberty Station will combine dance, projection and music to create an immersive, multisensory experience. 30 minutes. 8 p.m. April 22; 8 and 9 p.m. April 23; 8 p.m. April 24. Between Buildings 3 and 4, North Promenade. $20.

• “The Four Seasons” from San Diego Ballet: This walk-through performance will feature dancers performing outdoors to Vivaldi’s famous violin concerto with four movements themed to the seasons. 30 minutes. 4:30 p.m. April 23-24. Gardens, Building D, West Liberty Station. $20.

• “TransMythical” from Animal Cracker Conspiracy, San Diego: This half-hour, family-friendly procession through the Arts District will feature giant puppets, masked characters and musicians. 50 minutes. 12:45 and 6:45 p.m. April 23-24. Hub, North Promenade. Free.

FROM INTEGRITY, B2

and personal growth industry.

“There’s a precedent for personal and professional growth books to have various versions or editions that are done to serve different verticals,” Klubeck said.

The industry as a whole, he added, is “growing just as fast in its mediocrity as it is in its popularity,” and he wants his work to help set a higher standard.

In the book’s forward, Retired Rear

Admiral James McNeal wrote that Klubeck’s “allegory weaves the great game of baseball with how we can all fulfill the purpose that we were put on this earth to accomplish and is a wonderful story that should resonate with everyone, baseball fan or otherwise.”

“The Integrity Game” is available on Amazon. Its release date was coordinated to coincide with Major League Baseball’s opening day on April 7.

Eric Iantorno named 2021 Realtor of the Year

Eric Iantorno, of Pacific Sotheby’s International Realty, was recently recognized by the San Diego Association of Realtors as the 2021 Realtor of the Year. Iantorno stated “I feel honored. A huge thank you to my clients, family, friends, and of course my top-performing staff. I could not have done it without you all!”

In addition to the Realtor of the Year, Iantorno was recognized as the #1 individual agent at Pacific Sotheby’s International Realty in San Diego. Iantorno is also very involved in the community. He is a member of the board of directors at the Boys & Girls Clubs of San Dieguito, he is an honorary committee member for the Navy Seals SOF Support Foundation, and he is also a founding member of the Del Mar Village Circle.
